

JOB POSTING #SeniorGeologist

SENIOR GEOLOGIST

Premium Nickel Resources Botswana (PNRB) is seeking a Senior Geologist. The primary responsibility of the Senior Geologist is to ensure all employees/contractors are actively involved in achieving a safe and positive work environment. Health & safety issues are top priority.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Ensuring that COVID-19 protocols are followed
- Completion of daily update/production reports
- Assist with completion of month-end, annual production reports
- Review assay results from the drill programs, Confirmation of QAQC status
- Oversee Geological and Downhole Gyro Team
- Oversee Geophysical BHEM and Surface EM Team
- Development and execution of drilling programs to discover, define and develop the resources within brownfields Mining Lease
- Assist the Technical Services department in the interpretations of 3D geology, grade distributions and structures.
- Contribute to the department's community outreach and public relations functions as requested by the Exploration Manager
- Coordinating and participating in Weekly Safety Meetings
- Other geological position duties as designated by the Project Manager or any officer of the Company.

Qualifications:

- Minimum of a Bachelor's degree (B.S) in Geology or Geologic engineering.
- 5 year experience within a senior management role
- Previous experience in Magmatic Cu-Ni Sulphide Deposits is preferable
- Experience with deep drilling techniques is an asset
- Knowledge of the principles and methods used in a deep drilling (Including a familiarity with wedging/directional drilling) surface and UG drill program
- Demonstrated ability and experience using mine modeling software; Datamine & Leapfrog preferred. ArcGis would be helpful
- Familiar with Microsoft Office Suite
- Commitment to the application of quality assurance and safety standards.

- This position requires proficiency in both written and spoken English. You will be expected to be a skilled communicator and be result-oriented, flexible and capable of working independently and as part of a team, with the aim of contributing to the company's development.
- Ability to write reports, business correspondence and procedures
- Self-motivation to perform without close supervision.
- Positive outlook and approachable manner.
- Ability to demonstrate PNRB values and core competencies.

How to Apply:

- Email resumes and credentials to careers@premiumnickel.com
- Reference: Senior Geologist